“We were very excited with the interest and the hard work shown by the players during the try-outs. The level of play made the decision process very difficult.” says Coach Sherer. “With our past success of helping players continue their hockey careers, we are excited for the opportunity for these players. We will be ready to represent the state of California in 2 months.” affirms Coach Noviello.

The America's Showcase, held annually has moved from Pittsburgh to St. Louis for this years event. This is a top event for scouts from many colleges, junior hockey programs, and central scouting organizations throughout the country to come and see some talented players compete. Team California will consist of only junior and senior student/athletes in good academic standing who participates in the high school leagues throughout the State.
